

Vim Tutorial

command mode

1. :q → means quit. And :q! → means quit and dont save.
:w → means save and dont quit.
:wq → means save and quit.
2. j → means down and 20j means 20 line down.
k → means up
l → means right
h → means left
3. dd → to delet a line .10dd delet 10 line .
4. G → to buttom
gg → to top.
5. :30 → to go specific line.it will take line 30.
6. w → going next word.W to go further more,it ignores functuation.
h → go back previous word.
7. 0 → takes you very beganing of the line.
0w → take you in the first word of the line.
8. $ → takes you end of the line.
9. f(sign of the place) → f! Takes you where the ! is in the line .
10. f(the character) → if I want to go specific character in the line and (;) for the next same word.
11. o → to add new line in down and take insert mode.
O → to add new line down and take insert mode.
12. yy → to copy a line
p → to paste that line .
13. V → visual mode or to select a bunch of line .
14. cw → change the word and takes insert mode.
dw → delet the word and and doesn't take insert mode.
15. D → to delet the rest of the line or the everthing in the in the right side.
C → to change the rest of the line.

16. ct(till where I want to change) → to change specific part of the line.
dt(till where I want to change) → to change specific part of the line.
17.  → to show the same word above or below.
18. zz → brings the cursore in the middle.
19. ~ → to change character uppercase and lowercase .
20. . → period saves the last edit that was done and after I want to do the same thing just press . .